5 Successful Grant Recipients

5.1 Shortlisted Schools will be selected by the Administrator.

5.2 Shortlisted Schools will be contacted to share more information to promote across Trinity Heights Shopping Village's online and in-centre marketing platforms, including information on the organisation, initiative that a Grant would fund and supporting photo images. This information will be shared publicly by the Promoter as part of the Grants Program advertising. This may include local newspaper and radio platforms in addition to Trinity Heights Shopping Village's online and in-centre platforms. By entering into this Program, you agree and consent to this information being made public.

5.3 Shortlisted Schools will be announced to the public online via

<https://www.facebook.com/TrinityHeightsShoppingVillage> and <http://www.trinityheights.com.au/>

5.4 Shortlisted Schools will be listed publicly via the Centre website for public vote to determine the order of awarding of the Grants.

5.5 The Voting Period will run from Monday, March 9th, 2026, until Thursday, April 30th 2026.

5.6 The grant recipients will be decided based on a 50% weighting of public vote and 50% merit of application, with the top three Schools being rewarded 1 x Grant each in order of result.

5.7 In the event of a tie, the Administrator will determine the Recipients of the Grants in its absolute discretion.

5.8 The shortlisted Schools and final chosen Recipients of the Grants will be contacted by 5pm Friday, May 8th, 2026.
